Tips on wiring money

Wiring money is just like sending cash. Help protect yourself by knowing how to spot the signs of a scam. Red flags include pressure to send right away, investments that promise high returns, unexpected requests from impersonators posing as well-known organizations, and last-minute changes to established wire instructions. Consider consulting a banker before you wire money.

Tax Season Reminder: Wells Fargo delivers tax documents - either by mail or online depending on your delivery preference - no later than January 31 or by the IRS deadline of February 15 for brokerage accounts. Depending on the U.S. Postal delivery service, you should expect to receive your tax documents no later than the end of February. You can update your tax document delivery preferences by visiting Wells Fargo Online®.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires Wells Fargo to report information regarding the amount of interest, dividend or miscellaneous income earned as well as gross proceeds from sales by providing you with various IRS Forms 1099 based on the different types of transactions that occurred in your account during the calendar tax year. For example, if you have interest in the amount of $10 or more during that timeframe, you will receive a Form 1099-INT from Wells Fargo.
