It's official...

You just e-filed your taxes!

Congratulations on a job well done.

Dear Aerospace Edge LLC,

Success! Your e-file transmission went through. It will take 1 or 2 days for the government to process and accept your returns (longer for some states).

Next step: Keep an eye on your inbox

Currently your e-file status is pending. We'll send you an email the moment we know it's changed.

Need to change something on your return?

E-filing your return is like dropping a printed tax return in the mail, so making a change isn't possible just yet. But it will be soon. And we'll be right here to walk you through the process every step of the way, free of charge.

- Once your return is accepted, you can amend (make changes) right away.
- If your return is rejected, we'll help you fix anything that was wrong first, then help you make any additional changes you'd like.

Thanks so much for choosing TurboTax Business.
We'll be in touch soon!
